Dear Jack,

April 15

Are you OK in Kumamoto? I learned from the newspaper a terrible earthquake happened in Kumamoto this early morning. Sixty people were dead, and about 1,000 people got hurt. Some kids couldn't find their parents, so they cried. Many schools collapsed, so many students in Kumamoto couldn't go to school. I worry about you a lot.

Amber

Hi, Amber,

April 18

Don't worry about me too much. The earthquake was terrible to me, but the police officers worked day and night. They helped us a lot, so I think we can recover from the terrible earthquake soon. Thank you for caring about us here in Japan.

Amber: Don't tell me you didn't go to Garden House.

Keith : Why would I go there?

Amber: For Liz's birthday cake! I sent you a message this morning!

Keith: But you said Matt would go to the bakery! And why did you come here without me? I waited outside your place for an hour!

Amber: No! I said I'd have lunch with Matt, and we'd come straight here from the restaurant. So I asked you to help get the cake after work.

Keith: No, you did not! And why didn't you answer my calls?

Amber: My cellphone is dead! I said in the message that you could call Matt's number if you wanted to find me. Now please tell me you brought the gift for Liz.

Keith: What gift? I'm sure you didn't say anything about a gift in the message.
