五、閱讀測驗 (每格 2 分，共 10 分)

A long time ago, there was a castle in the forest. People called it The Castle of Bats because there were many bats around the castle. The castle looked scary, and most people were too afraid to go near it. Some even said they saw ghosts around it.

To nobody's surprise, some people went into the castle to look for an adventure. However, they never came out. Where did they go? Some said the ghosts killed them, some believed the bats ate them, and some thought they died inside the castle because they had nothing to eat. But most people thought it was actually a hoax: the stories of ghosts and missing people were all fake.

Now, the castle still stands in the forest, but nobody goes there anymore. Are you brave enough to go into the castle by yourself?

- () Which is closest in meaning (意思) to hoax?
(A) Fact. (B) News. (C) Trick. (D) Action.

2. () What do we know about the castle?

- (A) It's not in the forest now.
(B) It made many people scared.
(C) Nobody has ever gone into the castle.
(D) Everyone believes the bats in the castle eat people.

Dear Carol,

How time flies! I have been in Melbourne for six months. But I'm sad it's time for me to leave my Australian friends and go back to Taiwan next month.

I had a hard time when I first arrived here. I did not talk very much because I was afraid people might laugh at my poor English. But things have changed a lot since I began to stay with a homestay. My homestay family is from the USA. They are all nice to me. They speak English slowly and encourage me to speak English to them all the time. I've been living with them for five months. Besides, I join a sports club. I have to speak English with the members of the club, too.

Hope to see you soon.

Cathy
